

Leash

Sir Chloe

You can come in through the dog door, baby
Want you walking on your hands and your knees
Looking at you from the end of a leash
It's a little better, it's a little better

Pretty shiny newcomer
In the corner shaking off the water
Nothing like the feeling of the hunger
It's a little better, it's a little better

My home, a place above the sinkhole
I know, my only love is control

Sinner in a pool, it's a bitter blue
I'm nobody's you
I'm nobody's you
Sinner in a pool, I would keep it to
What I never knew
I'm nobody's you

You can eat it off the floorboards, baby
Want you laying quietly at my feet
Show me open eyes and behind your teeth
It's a little better, it's a little better

Pretty shiny new number
Cold and heavy on the skin and under
In the corner shaking off the water
It's a little better, it's a little better

Fingers in the birthday cake
It's never gonna change
It's never gonna change
OK

Sinner in a pool, it's a bitter blue
I'm nobody's you
I'm nobody's you
I don't wanna know the truth, I would keep it to
What I never knew
I'm nobody's you

My home, a place above the sinkhole
I know, my only love is control

Sinner in a pool
Sinner in a pool
