

2 AM

Sir Sly

Hold on, calm down
This will all be over any minute now
You're fine, you're good
I'd shrug you off, but I'd believe you if I could

I'm just panicking; I feel it in my heart now
I'm freaking myself out; I'm keeping my head down
I'm just panicking; I'm losing my own sight now
I'm freaking myself out; I'm keeping my head down

(Down, down, down, down-down)
(Down, down, down-down-down-down-down-down)
It's 2 AM and I'm surrounded, but I feel alone
It's 2 AM; I need to go outside, have a smoke
It's 2 AM and I'm surrounded, but I feel alone
It's 2 AM; I need to go outside, have a smoke

Breathe in, breathe out
I'm fine now
Pass out, wake up
Your words are kind, but they're just not enough

I'm just panicking; I feel it in my heart now
I'm freaking myself out; I'm keeping my head down
I'm just panicking; I'm losing my own sight now
I'm freaking the fuck out; I'm keeping my head down
I'm just panicking; I feel it in my heart now
I'm freaking the fuck out; I'm keeping my head down
I'm panicking; I feel it in my heart now
I feel it in my heart now, I feel it in my heart now

(Down, down, down, down-down)
(Down, down, down-down-down-down-down-down)
It's 2 AM and I'm surrounded, but I feel alone
It's 2 AM; I need to go outside, have a smoke
