

Change

Sir Sly

Would you stay a little bit longer
If I told you I feel okay?
I could be stronger
Yet I tell you, that I can change
I could change if I really tried to
I could change
I could change if I really want to

Because I'm lonely
Staring at a photograph of my one and only

Cause I was just a young, dumb kid with my thumbs up
Did I run, did I run to the wrong side?
Did I run to the wrong side?
Oh, yeah, I was dumbstruck
Looking at it now, I can tell that I fucked up
Did I run to the wrong side?

I'm ashamed
I hang my head and I get on my knees and pray
Seems like I have not done this in a thousand days, a thousand years
Feeling with my thousand fears
I don't know where they all came from
Let them grow and I should've tamed 'em
I should've have tamed 'em

Cause I was just a young, dumb kid with my thumbs up
Did I run, did I run to the wrong side?
Did I run to the wrong side?
Oh, yeah, I was dumbstruck
Looking at it now, I can tell that I fucked up
Did I run to the wrong side?

Everybody has bad days
I've had a fucking string of 'em
Never mind that I created 'em
Everybody has bad days
I've had about a million
Never mind that I created 'em

Cause I was just a young, dumb kid with my thumbs up
Did I run, did I run to the wrong side?
Did I run to the wrong side?
Oh, yeah, I was dumbstruck
Looking at it now, I can tell that I fucked up
Did I run to the wrong side?
