

Spine Curves

Sir Sly

Wait now
Everything is fake now, innit
Breakdown
I just had a breakdown didn't
I I I I I I I
Where's the panic button can I hit it when it's late night

Cause I just lie awake some nights
Think of all the time that I waste running in place some times
Sit down
Cause Im feeling sick now
Watching from the ceiling like it's TV
Cut the signal

You made me sit in the dark
Thought it was love I was wrong from the start
I guess I shoulda known all along
Took a little while but I promise I'll be better when you're gone

I'll be better when you're gone
I'll be better when you're gone
I'll be better when you're gone

You wanna know all of that shit for the tape deck (nah)
I wanna give them whiplash wanna break necks (yea)
Make 'em bounce bounce bounce bounce
Till the spine curves
Glue to their faces to the screen until their eyes hurt

Where did you go when the money was dry (bounce)
I'm having trouble with looking myself in the eyes
Make I wrapped too much of me into you
I thought you were my future that you were my truth

You made me sit in the dark
Thought it was love I was wrong from the start
I guess I shoulda known all along
Took a little while but I promise I'll be better when you're gone

Bounce till your spine curves
Nod your fuckin' head till your mind hurts
Bounce till your spine curves
Nod your fuckin' head till your mind hurts

Wait now everything is fake now innit
Breakdown I just had a breakdown didn't
I I I I I I I
Where's the panic button can I hit it when it's late night

You made sit in the dark
Thought that it was love I was wrong from the start
I guess I shoulda known all along
Took a little while but I promise I'll be better when you're gone

I'll be better when you're gone
I'll be better when you're gone
I'll be better when you're gone

I'll be better when you're gone
I'll be better when you're gone
I'll be better when you're gone
I'll be better when you're gone
I'll be better
