

Too Much Weight

Sir Sly

How's my world still burning
Time has stopped I'm certain
This is nothing new to me
Sorry I'm still learning

Lately I've been chocking
Confused and I'm unfocused
All the secrets I kept safe
But didn't think you'd notice
I was hiding

Maybe it's just how I was raised
Car is crashing I can't look away
And I bought every lie I sold
Maybe I'm the one to blame
Maybe there's just too much weight to hold
Alone, alone
Maybe there's just too much weight to hold
Alone, alone
Maybe there's just too much weight...

A lovers not a lover if there's hands tied
I don't wanna go the way my friends died
I've given up on giving up
And I tell God I've had enough
But momma tells me hang on till the morning light
Make it through the night

Maybe it's just how I was raised
Car is crashing I can't look away
And I bought every lie I sold
Maybe I'm the one to blame
Maybe there's just too much weight to hold
Alone, alone
Maybe there's just too much weight to hold
Alone, alone
Maybe there's just too much weight...

Under the pressure I fold
There's too much weight to hold
Under the pressure I fold
There's too much weight to hold
Alone, alone, alone
Maybe there's just too much weight to hold
Alone, alone
Maybe there's just too much weight...
