

one, two, three

Say I'm out of pocket, you think everything is wrong
Like there ain't other options
We just getting started but we barely get along
Working on these problems

It's the hardest
Where the start is
But I know we're gonna make it through
Yes, it's the darkest
Where the spark is
But there's nothing more amazing than when light starts breaking through

Ain't no match ever burn the same
Once a player gave up the game
Can't hold back when I speak your name
No, the feeling just ain't the same
This fire's burning brighter and brighter
A little more every day
We need to take it higher and higher
I promise, it'll be okay

Under tons of pressure, tryna lighten up this load
But we been moving mountains
I just know we better turn this house into a home
Can't keep it how we found it

It's the hardest, where the start is
But I know we're gonna make it through Yes, it's the darkest, where the spark is
But there's nothing more amazing than when light starts breaking through

Ain't no match ever burn the same
Once a player gave up the game
Can't hold back when I speak your name
No, the feeling just ain't the same
This fire's burning brighter and brighter
A little more every day
We need to take it higher and higher
I promise, it'll be okay
This fire's burning brighter and brighter
A little more every day
We need to take it higher and higher
I promise, it'll be okay
