

Falling

SiR

What a mess I've made
I swear it wasn't my fault
No matter what she said
She wasn't ready at all

I gave her the rules to the game
Said she was ready to play
And I believed her
Should have never believed her
Cause as soon as I made my move
She started changing the rules
She wasn't ready to lose
That was out of control
But she don't wanna let go

We were supposed to stay in the clouds
But if she found a way to bring it all down
We'd be falling
We'd be falling
We'd be falling

I can take the blame
Should've never got involved
I don't have a heart to break
She was unaware
That this was never fair
That love was never here

I gave her the rules to the game
Said she was ready to play
And I believed her
Should have never believed her
Cause as soon as I gave her a taste
She had a change of heart
Said it would break apart
If she wasn't meant for me
And this was never meant to be

We were supposed to stay in the clouds
But if she found a way to bring it all down
We'd be falling
We'd be falling
We'd be falling
