I'M NOT PERFECT

SiR

One step up and then
Two steps back
Might slip up but I'm still on track
How I'm feeling, I'll let you lead
As we proceed

I'm not perfect
But I'm gonna give you all I've got
Hope that you're ready 'cause I'm not
Don't wanna be
It ain't what you need
Lucky me
I'm not perfect
But that don't mean I won't shoot my shot
Don't like to work against the clock
I shouldn't wait
If I hesitate
It might be too late
Oh, I'm not perfect

Even with all my scars
Even if all is lost
I'm here
Tryna be the man you deserve
Tryna be a man of my word
It's clear
We may lose sight of it all
We may lose signal
But baby, in spite of it all
I'm better when I'm with you
I'm not perfect

One step up and then
Two steps back
Might slip up but I'm still on track
How I'm feeling, I'll let you lead
I'll keep healing as we proceed

Aye, man
Made-made in God image, that's intelligent designing
All started with a cell, then that cell was divided
Before it fully split, witness the vesica piscis
You can see it's an eye sideways, I think of Isis
Even father is the symbol of Jesus or a vagina
Ironically, that's what she be screaming when I'm inside her
Jesus Christ
It's all solved in diagrams, used by the scholars
To separate the pros and the cons to find the balance
I'm two fishes tied at the tail, how I'ma manage?
I'm no astrologist but I promise that
I'm not perfect
Soul

I still got so much room to grow
And I never pictured letting you go
Our love is true
There's only you

I know what I have to do
But I'm not perfect
Oh
It might take a little more time
Before I leave the old me behind
Oh, he's fighting hard
Can't let down my guard
It'll tear me apart
'Cause I'm not perfect

Even with all my scars
I'm here
It's clear
We may lose sight of it all
We may lose signal
But baby in spite of it all
I'm better when I'm with you

One step up and then
