

Alone, every night alone
Why am I alone? I wanna know that you want me, too
Am I wrong? Tell me that I'm wrong
Tell me I deserve all the pain that you put me through, oh

I really hate that I give a fuck
Pressin' my line, I don't wanna pick up
We know enough will never be enough
I play odds against, she keep callin' my bluff
Baby divin' deeper and deeper
She don't believe me when I tell her that I need her
Guess I shoulda stayed where I belonged
'Cause once you make it back to your happy home

I'm alone, every night alone
Why am I alone? I wanna know that you want me, too
Am I wrong? Tell me that I'm wrong
Tell me I deserve all the pain that you put me through, oh

You don't have to bring me good news, babe
I just wanna be there when you choose, babe

Dreamgirl got me losin' sleep
Baby, you remind me I'm a G
Maybe I'd be better on the run
Double vision playin' all week
This is like a game of survival
Why am I dyin' for a title?
Is it even worth the fight?

When I'll just end up alone, every night alone
Why am I alone? I wanna know that you want me, too
Am I wrong? Tell me that I'm wrong
Tell me I deserve all the pain that you put me through, oh

You don't have to bring me good news, babe
I just wanna be there when you choose, babe
You don't have to bring me good news, babe
I just wanna be there when you choose, babe

Dreamgirl got me losin' sleep
Baby, you remind me I'm a G
Maybe I'd be better on the run
Double vision playin' all week
