

Nothing Even Matters

SiR

I don't know where to start
Maybe your heart
I can feel it beatin'
Hopin' to be the rhyme or reason
Oh, you make me wanna be a better man
I'm getting stronger than I've ever been
Making a connection with your perfect imperfections
Break it down at your discretion
If it's under my protection
Your ebony complexion
I would die for your affection
You keep giving me direction
Baby, this is my confession, oh-ooh

I can't get enough
Hard to believe I even found your love
Diamond in the rough
Light up the dark like the fire I'm sparkin' up
Baby, when we touch
Nothing even matters
No one loves me better
I want this forever, oh-ooh

I can't get enough
Can't even picture my life without my girl
Diamond in the rough
Shine any brighter and you might save the world
Baby, when we touch
Nothing even matters
No one loves me better
I want this forever

Ever since I can remember, I been rollin' with stones
Didn't really think I'd ever find a place I belong
But since you came in the picture, I made a vow to behave
Didn't want you dealing with someone who would just drown in your wave
Never thought it would be easy but I'm changing my ways
On the brink of breaking, even with your love here to stay
Oh I'll never try, no I won't deny, your love can't be replaced
I'll keep catering to your will if only to bathe in your grace, oh-ooh

Hard to believe I even found your love
Diamond in the rough
Light up the dark like the fire I'm sparkin' up
Baby, when we touch
Nothing even matters
No one loves me better
I want this forever, oh-ooh

I can't get enough
Baby, when we touch
Nothing even matters

I want this forever, ever

I want this forever, ever (Forever, forever, forever)

I want this forever, ever (Forever, forever, forever)

I want this forever, ever (Forever, forever, forever, forever, oh-oo)

I can't get enough

Hard to believe I even found your love

Diamond in the rough

Light up the dark like the fire I'm sparkin' up

Baby, when we touch

Nothing even matters

No one loves me better

I want this forever, oh-oo

I can't get enough

Can't even picture my life without my girl

Diamond in the rough

Shine any brighter and you might save the world

Baby, when we touch

Nothing even matters

No one loves me better

I want this forever, ever
