

Elixir

Sirenia

I spin in circles like the wheel time

I'm wasting away

I'm losing my mind

Head for the unknown, the long lost divine

Grand mystery

The riddle of life

An elixir... Is all I need

An elixir... I beg and plead

An elixir... Let me drink my fill of this cure-all remedy

An elixir... I come undone

An elixir... The fallen one

An elixir... Fill my mug

I'll drink to life and a loaded gun

I have seen into the future of mine

Just years of decline

All waiting in line

Behind the curtains of life there's a light

Still shining bright

The end is in sight

Come speak to me

My love, my enemy

After all we've been through

I'm still dead to you
