

Nomadic

Sirenia

The road that lies ahead
Draws me in again
Nothing ever changed
'Cause deep within my heart
And deep within my soul
I already let you go

'Cause my spirit's in the wind
I'll never ever let you in

You can't hold me back, you can't hold me down
Can't chain my soul down to the ground
Can't break my spirit anyhow
You can't lock me up, you can't lock me in
Can't hold me down with anything
'Cause my spirit's in the wind

The wide and open road
It draws me in once more
The only way I know
Throughout all of these years
And for the countless tears
I caused you all along

'Cause my spirit's in the wind
I'll never ever let you in

You can't hold me back, you can't hold me down
Can't chain my soul down to the ground
Can't break my spirit anyhow
You can't lock me up, you can't lock me in
Can't hold me down with anything
'Cause my spirit's in the wind

The open road allures me
Embrace me, pulls me in
It sets my spirit free
I roam with the wind

You can't hold me back, you can't hold me down
Can't chain my soul down to the ground
Can't break my spirit anyhow
You can't lock me up, you can't lock me in
Can't hold me down with anything
'Cause my spirit's in the wind
