Stop playing pretending your love,
Cause the feeling is not so fun for both.
Stop playing pretending your love,
Cause the feeling is not so fun for both.

I'll start like all the stories starts:
A couple met before they've fucked,
To be together for a while.
My Dear it could be You and I.
Your way of acting isn't wise.
In fact it really drives me nuts.
He fell in love to be her own,
The cutest girl he ever known.
The truth she didn't have a home.
He never knew her piont of view.
She don't believe the love is good.
The feeling made them fools.

Less judgment please.
Compassion is the key.
To understand her wiser,
To treat him little kinder.
Less judgment please.
Before we end up sick,
Try understanding sister.
Let's talk about it brother.

Stop playing pretending your love,
Cause the feeling is not so fun for both.
Stop playing pretending your love,
Cause the feeling is not so fun for both.

Since the beginning 'till the end.
She planned week for him to spend.
He gave her all she wanted less.
She didn't know how to behave
After all promises he gave-
The life together 'till the grave.
The other day she disappeared.
The cruel girl found other deal.
He still believed the love was real.
Among heer pictures now he cries.
She's having fun and little spice,
Thinking of him in other's arms.

Less judgment please.
Compassion is the key.
To understand her wiser,
To treat him little kinder.
Less judgment please.
Before we end up sick,
Try understanding sister.
Let's talk about it brother.
