

You're free. U don't belong to me.
So clean you mind with water
and don't you ever fear of what you feel.
You're me. Together we are free.
We live the lives we'd chosen
so watch it and believe in what U see.

Like I said,
I am just like water,
I'll transform to whatever shape U are.
If you're round I'll be round
If you're deep I'll be deep and I'll fill U up.
If you're blue I'll be blue cause I reflect your mind.
So try believing what you see when you look at me.
Jutr try for once to believe.

You're free. U don't belong to me.
So clean you mind with water
and don't you ever fear of what you feel.
You're me. Together we are free.
We live the lives we'd chosen
so watch it and believe in what U see.

Yes, I do believe in destiny.
But I just can't agree that you are my property.
No baby U don't belong to me.
But believe in what U see when U look at me,
because this view reveals just what I keep right here -
This is my heart.
For real.
Believe in me.

Then look for me while you sleep.
I'll be right here in your dreams.
The look for me while you sleep.
I'll be right here in your dreams.
