

Elements Part 1 (Abilene)

Sister Hazel

I fell in love with a girl from Abilene
She was the prettiest devil that you've ever seen
I knew the other women they could be so mean
Till she left with him in my diamond ring

And that's when I lost my innocence
And I ain't been the same not one day since
But I know she's got it coming to her
I know [?] nothing to her
I sleep knowing it's coming to her, yes
