

I Will Come Through

Sister Hazel

If you save you love me
I will be a fortunate man
Drop your inhibitions
Lay them on the ground
Where you stand

The only thing
I'll change is everything
Oh, come on won't you let me
I will lift you up

Maybe I'm
Not very pretty
But I'm all that I got

So if you think
About letting me in
You'll never worry
About nothing again

If you let me love you
I will come through
If you let me love you
I will come through

If you let me love you
I will come through
I will come through
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I'll celebrate you woman
Carry you above everyone, yeah
And in the shady hours
I will be your midnight sun

The only thing
I'll change is everything
Oh, baby won't you let me
I will lift you up

I'd rather spend
A moment with you
Than forever with anyone

So if you think
About letting me in
You'll never worry
About nothing again

If you let me love you
I will come through
If you let me love you
I will come through

If you let me love you
I will come through
I will come through

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

So if your gonna let me
I will come through
If you let me love you
I will come through

If you let me love you
I will come through
I will come through
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Let me love you
I will come through
Let me love you
I will come through

Let me love you
I will come through
Let me love you
I will come through
