

In Two

Sister Hazel

Somewhere buried under the weight of the world
There's a boy and a girl trying to dig their way out
Below the wreckage it gets harder to breathe
Love will suffer and bleed and survive it somehow

And all I know is I'll never let you go
No matter what darkness comes in
I will shelter you
Nothing's breaking us in two
Hold on to me, I'll hold on to you
Nothing's breaking us in two

Some people build their lives on silver and gold
Give their hearts and their souls to some material dream
But you know I could never lie to myself
Done enough time in hell
To know what matters to me

And all I know is I'll never let you go
No matter what darkness comes in
I will shelter you
Yeah nothing's breaking us in two
Hold on to me, I'll hold on to you
Yeah nothing's breaking us in two

And it won't get any easier
To keep the world at bay
They'll be nothing to run from come what may

And all I know is I'll never let you go
No matter what darkness comes in
I will shelter you
Yeah nothing's breaking us in two
Hold on to me, I'll hold on to you
Yeah nothing's breaking us in two

I'll hold on to you
Yeah nothing's breaking us in two
Hold on to me I won't let go of you
Yeah nothing's breaking us in two
