You say stay and never leave You say meant for ever I could believe you, but I don't You say we're almost all alone together All alone You say You say you will I know you won't I was wrong I was wrong to ever doubt I can get along without I can love my fellow man But I'm damned if I'll love yours In a bar that's always closing In a world where people shout I don't wanna talk this over I don't wanna talk it out I was quite impressed until I hit the floor Isn't that what friends are for? Pain looks great on other people That's what they're for I was wrong I was wrong to ever doubt I can get along without I can love my fellow man But I'm damned if I'll love yours You say stay and never leave You say meant for ever I could believe you, but I don't You say we're almost all alone together All alone You say You say you will I know you won't I was wrong I was wrong to ever doubt I can get along without I can love my fellow man But I'm damned if I'll love yours In a bar that's always closing In a world where people shout I don't wanna talk this over I don't wanna talk it out I was quite impressed until I hit the floor Isn't that what friends are for? Pain looks great on other men That's what they're for I was wrong I was wrong to ever doubt

I can get along without

I can love my fellow man But I'm damned if I'll love yours
