

State of Tyranny

[SITD:]

For want of a better world
For want of light
Modern day slavery
We are hogtied

Life - running out of time
Pain - we have paid the price
Mirror - the end of the line
Right - in front of your eyes

On the edge of blank despair
On the edge of time
Extermination from within
Stop the atrocious crime

Where's freedom of speech?
Where's freedom of choice?
We are bound in chains
Raise your voice
Where's freedom of speech?
Where's freedom of choice?
Darkness prevails
Raise your voice

No freedom of faith
No equal rights
Destruction will occur
Stop the genocide

Life - running out of time
Pain - we have paid the price
Mirror - the end of the line
Right - in front of your eyes

On the edge of tyranny
On the edge of death
Brutal extra national forces
Choking our breath

Life - running out of time
Pain - we have paid the price
Mirror - the end of the line
Right in front of your eyes

Where's freedom of speech?
Where's freedom of choice?
We are bound in chains
Raise your voice
Where's freedom of speech?
Where's freedom of choice?
Darkness prevails
Raise your voice
