

Lonesome

Six Degrees of Separation

One lonesome heart, one lonesome soul
One tiny mind, standing alone, all alone
Your dreamy eyes will blaze forever
And songs will always burn your heart
For charming tones you'd face the devil
For songs you've lost you peace of mind
Embers at heart, embers at soul
In rhythm they breathe, in rhythm them glow
Your dreamy eyes will blaze forever
And songs will always burn your heart
For charming tones you'd face the devil
For songs you've lost you peace of mind
