

Masterpiece of Pain

Six Degrees of Separation

Masterpiece of pain
All my life I've never stopped waiting,
I've never stopped searching
All my life I've never stopped waiting,
I've never stopped searching for a sign
All my life I've never stopped dreaming,
I've never stopped hoping
And all this life I've never stopped pushing,
I've never stopped trying
But now I know it was all in vain, just a waste of time
And now I know it was all in vain, because this life
This life it's just a masterpiece of pain,
This life's a trap and I'm the victim and its slave
It's a poison that I have to swallow every day
I'm falling down ... again
And all the time it's never stopped bleeding,
It's never stopped hurting
And all the time I've never stopped healing,
I've never stopped breathing
This life!
This life it's just a masterpiece of pain, this life's a trap
And I'm the victim and its slave
It's a poison that I have to swallow every day
I'm falling down ... again
