

Be Gentle, Please

Six60

Waltz through the frame
While I whisper your name
I'm ready to let every card fall

Love like a mist
How it clings to your lips
Funny thinking I used to be strong

Cruel twist of fate
More than one heart can take
It's a weight I can't possibly bear
But give me your hand
By your side I will stand
If you make me a man
Then I swear

I'll give you all my days
Give you all my dreams
Darling every night
You've got me on my knees

The sun and the rain
The joy and the pain
Honey, I'll give you everything
All I ask is be gentle please
Oh oh is be gentle

Fragile's a word
That never lived in my world
Until you wrapped your arms around me
Porcelain dance
Baby I'll take that chance
If you risk it all on me

Cruel twist of fate
More than one heart can take
It's a weight I can't possibly bear
But give me your hand
By your side I will stand
If you make me a man
Then I swear

I'll give you all my days
I'll give you all my dreams
Darling every night
You've got me on my knees

Sun and the rain
The joy and the pain
Honey, I'll give you everything
All I ask is be gentle, please
Oh oh is be gentle, please
