Exhale

Six60

I just don't get it
Been living life with no stop sign
I'm up all night, forget it
You got me once, not this time
Got new kicks on, just do it
I'm running after the world
I'm breaking out of these chains
I don't get it, but I'm in it

And when the ship rides out you gon' witness
That there will be nothing else there but you
So I'ma go live each day
With an empty cup and a glass half full, oh

Oh I, oh I, oh I (I gotta) exhale
Oh I, oh I, oh I (I gotta) exhale

This not a love song, forget it
I've been around enough to know that your made from plastic
These moments show only your real friends get it
I know it's nothing but a painted red rose, but I get it
You're finished

Oh I, oh I, oh I (We gotta) exhale
Oh I, oh I, oh I (We gotta) exhale

Breath in, breath out, exhale
Breath in, breath out, exhale
