

Good Wine

Six60

All the china
That her mother said she would break
Eating dinner
By the TV off a paper plate

In the closet
Hangs a dress that she never wore
Waited for him
So long that it don't fit anymore

Why wait till the end
Before we start living
'Cause I've been looking back on what I should have done
Waiting for the right time that may never come

So break out the good wine
'Cause nothing lasts forever
Break out the good wine
Just 'cause we're together

In the drive way
There's a car that he never drove
He restored it
Fixed it up but only for show

See the chances
That he always wanted to take
But he didn't
So all he ever made were mistakes

Why wait till the end
Before we start living
'Cause I've been looking back on what I should have done
Waiting for the right time that may never come

'Cause nothing lasts forever
Just 'cause we're together

'Cause nothing lasts forever
Just 'cause we're together
