

Hurricane

Six60

Feel the clouds rolling in
Hear the whispers in the wind
Take the shudders off and open all the doors
I won't worry anymore

A sea the raindrops on my skin
Pulls me under once again
I ride the waves until I crash the shore
Dancing in this perfect storm
Dancing in this perfect storm

As I'm standing in the rain
All my pain is washed away
In the eye of the storm, I will stay
'Cause nothing hurts
When I'm lost in her, hurricane

I can hear the sirens call
And the tide is ten feet tall
The waters rising and my walls begin to fall
She's the reason for it all

As I'm standing in the rain
All my pain is washed away
In the eye of the storm, I will stay
'Cause nothing hurts
When I'm lost in her, hurricane

Hand in hand in my arms
Dancing in her perfect storm

As I'm standing in the rain
All my pain is washed away
In the eye of the storm, I will stay
'Cause nothing hurts
When I'm lost in her, nothing hurts
When I'm lost in her, hurricane
