

Long Gone

Six60

Uh-huh, yeah

Dealin' with your friends
Breakfast is in bed
The things I would do
Coming to my shows
Dealing with my lows
Tell me, where were you?
50/50 love
Never quite enough from your point of view
I thought we were this
You thought we were that
But we both know the truth

You never give in
Why can't you say sorry?
You can't stand to lose
It's never you, it's everyone else

Someday, when you give a fuck
You'll be waking up to call and tell me
You were wrong
But, baby, I'll be gone

Someday, when you give a fuck
You'll be waking up to call and tell me
You were wrong
But, baby, I'll be gone, long gone

Ooh, long gone, long gone

I know you're from a place
Where seasons never change
But you're hot and cold
And it's too much to take
Oh, I tried so hard and that was my mistake
So, I guess I've just got myself to blame

'Cause you never give in
Why can't you say sorry?
You can't stand to lose
It's never you, it's everyone else

Someday, when you give a fuck
You'll be waking up to call and tell me
You were wrong
But, baby, I'll be gone

Someday, when you give a fuck
You'll be waking up to call and tell me
You were wrong
But, baby, I'll be gone, long gone

Ooh, long gone, long gone
Ooh, long gone, I'll be long gone

Someday, when you give a fuck

You'll be waking up to call and tell me
You were wrong
But, baby, I'll be gone, gone

Someday, when you give a fuck
You'll be waking up to call and tell me
You were wrong
But, baby, I'll be gone, long, long gone

Yeah, baby, I'll be gone, long gone
