

Please Don't Go

Six60

Should have looked both ways before I let you cross my mind
Didn't see it coming cos I've never seen your kind
Zero to hundred ain't too fast
But you at a thousand just like that
So run that back cos you so bad let's do this one more time

Ooo
Please don't go
Ooo
Please don't go

Thought I made the rules until you redefined the game
Trying to keep it cool but damn you're fire like a flame
Every move I make you match
You know how to light me up like that
Wish I didn't want it but I do so won't you stay

Please don't go, don't go
Please don't go, don't go
Please don't go, oh oh
Please don't go, don't go

You could be the end of me
If it kills me I still want you as a ghost
Yeah I would give you anything
Just please don't go

Oh I hope you're happy that you ruined me for good
Set the bar too high I swear you always knew you would
I don't know how I will survive
If I let you walk out of my life
So come on back to bed and let's wake up the neighborhood

Please don't go, yeah
Please don't go, oh oh
Please don't go
Please don't go
Please don't, please don't go
