

Tomorrow

Six60

I sat alone this mornin'
And I heard what the birds had to say
I thought of the people in my life
And all those who have flown away

Revelation came, it said
"Live life for today", yeah
Uh-huh
Uh... 'cause it could all be gone tomorrow
Uh-huh
Uh... 'cause it could all be gone tomorrow
Tomorrow

I sat alone this mornin'
Yeah, I could've sat there for days
You can't change the world once it's lived in
Uh, see how it's spinnin' round with or without you
You

Revolution came and it said
"Live life for today"
Today
Uh... 'cause it could all be gone tomorrow
Uh... 'cause it could all be gone tomorrow
Be gone tomorrow, yeah

Ridin' his balloons in the darkest of places
That I can wash my sins at the golden hour
Hour, I found myself in the darkest of places
And let my love shine through in the golden hour

Yes, the golden hour
Golden hour
Uh... woo
'Cause it could all be gone tomorrow
Be gone tomorrow, yeah
Ooh... 'cause it could all be gone tomorrow
Tomorrow
