Too Much

Six60

Tell me that you wanted to be loved,
Asking me to hold you like you were the only one,
You wanted, and you tell me so, tell me so,
Tell me tell me so,
Don't you know you're playing with a loaded gun
Woah, lucky if you ever see the light,
And I'm tryna tell you that the worst is yet to come,
You wanted, but they tell you no, tell you no
Tell you tell you no,
Don't you know you're playing with a loaded gun, woah

Why you wanna be loved,
So much, so much, so much
Haven't you had enough, this stuff, it's too much, too much
La la la la (too much, too much) la la la la...

See you, you're a sucker for the game
Now I, I'm tryna find a way cos we
We got something to figure out,
Ain't nobody stronger than we, lord

I can hear them knocking at the door,
150 mirrors lying broken on the floor
I don't wanna say I told you so, told you so,
Told you told you so,
But you only get a second then it's gone, woah
I can see it killing you inside, ain't nowhere to run,
And there ain't nowhere to hide,
I'd help you but you'd tell me no, tell me no,
Tell me tell me no,
But you only get a minute and it's gone, woah

Why you wanna be loved,
So much, so much, so much
Haven't you had enough, this stuff, it's too much, too much
La la la la (too much, too much) la la la la la...

See you, are a sucker for the game
Now I, I'm tryna find a way cos we
We got something to figure out,
Ain't nobody stronger than we, lord

Listen, see you, you're a sucker for the game
Now I, I'm tryna find a way cos we
We got something to figure out,
Ain't nobody stronger than we, lord

La la la la (too much, too much) la la la la la...
It's too much, lord,
Too much, too much
