Healer

Sixpence None The Richer

Amber liquid Wetting wine cups to the stem, Spilling drops of bliss and on the earth like little gems That myself mistook so foolishly As I stopped to steal a drink Of the liquid in the melting In my eyes in my hands and on my lips, And on my lips Earthy blankets Full of golden lint and thread I see the children play as I am on my way again To another place I'm sorry to say that we Blurred the picket fence Still the children play They wrap themselves in the middle to sip sunlight And drink innocence, They drink innocence Hey today Beauty is my healer Hey today I'm gonna steal her Amber liquid Wetting wine cups to the stem, Spilling drops of bliss and on the earth like little gems That myself mistook so foolishly As I stopped to steal a drink Of the liquid in the melting In my eyes in my hands and on my lips, And on my lips Hey today Beauty is my healer Hey today I'm gonna steal her Earthy blankets Full of golden lint and thread I see the children play as I am on my way again To another place I'm sorry to say that we Blurred the picket fence Still the children play They wrap themselves in the middle to sip sunlight And drink innocence, They drink innocence Hey today Beauty is my healer Hey today I'm gonna steal her Hey today Beauty is my healer

Hey today I'm gonna steal her
