And then you'll see the table turn
For another soul be concern
You knew that the fire still a burn

Think about the blessings
I don't think of nothing less

When wicked people have bad things throwing at you
King Selassie already have a better thing going for you
Infinite blessings flowing for you
We got the tree of life growing for you

Today is just a sample of what's for tomorrow
