

You wind me up, let me down
I feel you need me in town, oh-woah
I can't keep you one side up
You turn the world upside down, oh-woah
Don't have to spend a dime on you
'Cause I know you don't need it
I wanna put my time in you
I just hope that you see it
You see it

I never say goodbye
'Cause that would be a lie that I don't believe (Oh)
But one thing I adore is
You can spoil me with loyalty
I know it might sound lame
But it don't feel the same when they stare at me
So leave the boy you have and I'll show you your path
Come lay with me (Me)

I never say goodbye
'Cause that would be a lie that I don't believe
But one thing I adore is
You can spoil me with loyalty
I know it might sound lame
But it don't feel the same when they stare at me
