Fuck would you burn my shit for no reason? (Whoa)
Is it too late to call you crazy, baby?
You heard from my friends (Heard from my friends)
That I can't eat and I haven't been sleeping
It's not a game if you're not playing, baby

This is for the boys that be running from love (Play)
This is for the girls that be feeling out of luck (Play)

I should never have to come back home to this (Fuck is this?)
You know that's my favorite Bottega
Why would you play with me like that? (The fuck)
You doing the most 'cause you came home and found a wig
I think it's essential to use context, that was there when we got here
I guess
I guess I'm a coward, I guess I'm a bitch ass nigga
Whatever you want
But give me my flowers 'cause it took an hour for me to find what makes you cum
Matter fact, give me my keys
You're kicking me out? I'm fixing to leave
