

Who Do You Think You Are

Skarlett Riot

I can't unsee
What you have done to me
And now I won't forgive easily
Expected me to sit back quietly
Whilst you spread your lies
So evilly, deceitfully

Who do you think
Who do your think you are
Tearing me to pieces
Shattering a broken heart
You've got a lot to learn
Keep on running
Don't look back now
I'll be coming
Who do you think
Who do you think you are
Who do you think you are

I walked the line
You watched me fear for my life
You treated me like a fool
I trusted you
And from now on I cut all ties with you
You won't control me
Manipulate me
Destroy my every move
(Destroy me)

Who do you think
Who do your think you are
Tearing me to pieces
Shattering a broken heart
You've got a lot to learn
Keep on running
Don't look back now
I'll be coming
Who do you think
Who do you think you are
Who do you think you are

Don't come crawling to me
Set me free, now
Set me free
Don't come crawling to me

You will not hold me down
You will not be the one who catches me when I fall down
You will not break me, I will not keep falling down
No
You will not break me
