Burning A Hole In My Mind

Skeeter Davis

Though it happened long ago the hurt won't let go And it's burning a hole in my mind I see her and I see you and the things we used to do And it's burning a hole in my mind.

I said I'd forget and I tried
But my heart tells my tongue that it lied.

Though I tried to forgive every moment I live Is a torture the devil designed In my mind's eye I see how you made a fool of me And it's burning a hole in my mind.

In my mind's eye I see how you made a fool of me And it's burning a hole in my mind...
