

Lonely Bridge

Skeeter Davis

Lonely bridge standing there lonely just like me
Maybe you can help me end my misery.

How many lovers used your heart for a stepping stone
When they made their plans so selfishly then left you all alone
How many people walked on ye before they left your side Never caring that the river holds the teardrops that you cried Lonely bridge you're reaching out and yet you cannot find A warm sweet love to feel your arms they're empty just like mine.

Lonely bridge standing there lonely just like me
Maybe you can help me end my misery.

Well, I guess I'm just like the others for now I'm walkin' on you too
And now just like them I'm gonna leave for the waters blue
My sorrow and my loneliness I'll leave here at your wall
Now lonely bridge please lift me up and gently let me fall
Into the peaceful waters where sadness isn't shown There must be one more broken soul there so I won't be alone.

Lonely bridge standing there lonely just like me
Thank you so for helping me end my misery...
