

Longing To Hold You Again

Skeeter Davis

All alone here am I so lonely I could cry
'Cause I'm longing to hold you again
Missing you is all I do I dream the whole day through
'Cause I'm longing to hold you again.

The world is cold. the world is gray, you took the sunshine away
You'll never know how empty my arms have been
Till once more you're close to me as close as we can be
I'll be longing to hold you again.

The world is cold. the world is gray, you took the
sunshine away
You'll never know how empty my arms have been
Till once more you're close to me as close as we can be
I'll be longing to hold you again...
