

No, Never

Skeeter Davis

No never, never has a girl loved
A boy the way I love you
No never, never has a heart beat
With love so true and all for you, no never.

Never have two arms longed to hold someone
The way my two arms long to hold you
Never have two lips tasted kisses quite so thrilling
Never have two eyes beheld a wonder such as you
Now that I have you I'll never know a lonely day, no never
Our love will last forever it can never fade away, no never.

Never have two arms longed to hold someone
The way my two arms long to hold you
Never have two lips tasted kisses quite so thrilling
Never have two eyes beheld a wonder such as you
Now that I have you I'll never know a lonely day, no never
Our love will last forever it can never fade away, no never.

No never, no never...
