

Why So Lonely

Skeeter Davis

Why so lonely why is my world in such a spin
Now he's gone and yet I guess I still love him
Why so lonely why all this misery
I knew it couldn't last he never belong to me

If I'd been smart I would have never taken that second chance
He hurt me once before and now he's done it again
Why so lonely...
Why so lonely why so lonely
