

Harry Mac

Skegss

I woke up smiling
Finally had a good sleep
For now I'm done lying
Down on these sheets
I get the taste for something
When I look outside
Harry is coming
Round to get me in five

Cause these days too nice to waste
This day's too nice to waste
This day's too nice to waste it

I started laughing
For no reason at all
I think about what I'm doing
And what I was doing before
Things change like the seasons
Time moves on
So I guess you got to cease it
When you get a taste on your tongue

Cause these days too nice to waste
This day's too nice to waste
This day's too nice to waste it
