

Picturesque Moment

Skegss

"What a day to be alive," she said to me
She looked up at the sky as she said to me
"One day our eyes will be shut forever
We'll be kicking daisies up from the ground
So for now, while our eyes are open
Let's enjoy this picturesque moment"
She took the words right out of my mouth
She said exactly what I was thinking
She said, "Boy, you should slow down
Slow down your goddamn drinking"
I said, "Girl, my eyes are open
So let's drink to this picturesque moment"

Some people think that they're slaves to society
Others make themselves slaves to sobriety
So pop that top, pour me a cup
And let's drink to this picturesque moment
