

Running From Nothing

Skegss

Running from nothing
So nothing can haunt me
Been sleeping out on the couch
'Cause there's no ghosts in the living room
No one's in the house
But I feel a presence
Another energy
Like another entity

I fell out of a dream
I must have landed on my sheets
'Cause I woke up right where
I went to sleep
I fell out of a dream
Fell out of some other scene
Then I woke up right where
I went to sleep

Running from nothing
Running from nothing

Running from nothing
So nothing can haunt me
Been sleeping out on the couch
'Cause there's no ghosts in the living room
Stop in for a beer
Just for a minute
Yeah, I'm steering clear of any spirits

I fell out of a dream
I must have landed on my sheets
'Cause I woke up right where
I went to sleep
I fell out of a dream
Fell out of some other scene
Then I woke up right where
I went to sleep

Running from nothing
Running from nothing

I fell out of a dream
I must have landed on my sheets
'Cause I woke up right where
I went to sleep
I fell out of a dream
Fell out of some other scene
Then I woke up right where
I went to sleep

Running from nothing
So nothing can haunt me
