

Stranger

Skegss

This day is getting older
And I'm getting older too
Everything is changing
As I'm aging in these shoes
I remember saying to myself that I would always smile
No matter what my state is
No matter what the day is like
'Cause I know that I've got way more time
Than there is left in this day
The road will unwind
With every stride that I'm going to take
And I'm gonna find that the road, it won't always be straight
I'm just a stranger to this place
