

Raging Demon

Skelator

Far beyond your mortal world there lies a truth unknown
A sacred art long forgotten, a power to behold
Conjuring dark energies from sixteen different realms
Face your fate I take you to the very depths of hell

Demons arise to light up the sky
Leaving your body to rot and to die
Your sins will take you over
I will devour your soul
The wrath of raging demon

Echoes of your suffering will ring across the land
Purple flames of hatred will consume you where you stand
Fall before your master and die one thousand deaths
I am your worst nightmare now take your final breath

Demons arise to light up the sky
Leaving your body to rot and to die
Your sins will take you over
I will devour your soul
The wrath of raging demon
