

Symphony of the Night

Skelator

Screams break the silence
Deams turn to nightmares
Flee from the forest

Oh, the battles begun and the dawn will not come
What a terrible night for a curse
The undead are walking the earth
Through the black of the night all his children take flight
Spreading the pain of rebirth

Pain now consumes me
Hatred's inside me
Fate has destroyed me

I must save my land from the hand of the damned
And vanquish this horrible curse
The undead have conquered the earth
Through the black of the night all his children take flight
Spreading the pain of rebirth

His form is completed, he cannot be beaten
By even the mightiest of warriors
The bodies are mounting, the darkness corrupting
The king of the night has returned

Now the battle's been won and Simon lives on Liberating his land from the curse
The undead are banished from earth
Now the sun will arise and light up the sky
The morning had vanquished the night
