

Cybernetic Harvest

Skeletal Remains

The careless selection of man
A cold mechanical harvest
Deception, sinister intent
Antagonized, deconstructed

Subdue the all from within
Through paralytic bewilderment
Entranced by all artificial
Carrying out our soul's descent

Flesh of your back ripped to shreds
Conduits forced deep through your ribs
Asphyxiate in agony
An exodus from normality
Confined to a realm of misery

Control the mind
Through one we bind

Embrace cognitive distortion
Submit to our inner demise
Siphon the essence of being
Suffer this mortal extraction

Behind their eyes, hide sentient lies
Dominance over the weak
Dormant of mind, existence confined
This vessel, impure, they deplete

The careless selection of man
A cold mechanical harvest
Deception, sinister intent
Antagonized, deconstructed

Subdue the all from within
Through paralytic bewilderment
Entranced by all artificial
Carrying out our soul's descent

Dormant of mind
Existence confined
Dormant of mind
Existence confined
