

Forever in Sufferance

Skeletal Remains

Voices breathe down my neck
Internal pain, my body reflects
At war with one's self
Never at peace, forever I'll be

Myself, I shall erase
Feel the break in my sanity
The burden is me
Withered husk of a broken man

Drowning in a sea of sorrow
Absent in time, bitter contempt
Weakened through constant suffering
Ending my life, freed of this agony

Consciousness gone
Failed everyone
All hope lost within me
For this reason I cease to be

With every breath I take
The boiled rage embraced
Desiring the end I close my eyes
And pull the trigger
Never will I remain a victim
To my mind again
Pull the trigger

Remember me not
For I am nothing
Discarded and forgotten
My name does not exist

Consciousness gone
Failed everyone
All hope lost within me
For this reason I cease to be

Myself, I shall erase
Feel the break in my sanity
The burden is me
Husk of a man

Voices breathe down my neck
Internal pain, my body reflects
At war with one's self
Never at peace, forever I'll be

Drowning in a sea of sorrow
Absent in time, bitter contempt
Weakened through constant suffering
End of my life, freed of this agony
