To Conquer the Devout

Skeletal Remains

Come forth, place before me
Sacrificial offering

Cry thy name
Shunned of light
Flesh now bled through blasphemy

Beast arise
Bring forth this day of reckoning

World demise
Seething rage so deafening

Hear our cries
Decimate all who defy

Blind our eyes
Free our mind of this ancient lie

Scorch the Earth
Bringer of archaic rebirth
Befoul its worth
Defaced divine creation, all clerics purged

Insolence
Death comes for the blessed who serve
Severance
Dismiss the holy light, your throne deserved

Beast arise
Bring forth this day of reckoning

World demise
Seething rage so deafening

Hear our cries
Decimate all who defy

Blind our eyes
Free us of this ancient lie

Suffer no more for we are reborn

No
No Gods, no masters above
All your faith in the "Creator" undone

No Gods, no masters above
Succumb to the might of the unholy one

No Gods, no masters above
Your faith now bleeds
Your pain thus feeds

At your behest O Ageless One
Command thy will through heresy
Reclaim once more

Condemn the praise of divinity
