Dripping in sauce

Dripping in sauce

Whole squad got clout better show some respect
Dripping in sauce anytime I step
You know we get loud then shell down the ends
Out all day getting 20s and 10s
This pack go fast and I re-up again
Lifestyle do this again and again
My old ting cute but she used to bug me
So I just gave her to one of my friends
Again and again, again and again

Where you gone bro?
I just came from Harrods
Trap, trap, trap, then you're switching up houses
Always had mojo, these girls want me
Believe I ain't nothing like Austin Powers
We got the amm and it's here for the low
They chase girls like Johnny Bravo
Brown and cute, she don't want me do road
Folding the block and then hitting up home
Tryna pack shows and we all do jugg
You ain't got bread, why you talk so much?
Niggas in love with the socials and girls so much
That they go and get themselves locked up
Dickheads...
Associates it's all money
I swear only couple people I love
Yo dis bud come so smelly
You should see the THC on the bud
Loud!
All the bros got birds
We're out on the curb
No fraud, just trapping
Give a fuck what irrelevants say
'Cuh I still get bands while rapping
LD shots got the cats lean up
P gotta sit down he's off balance
Like girl how your ass so big but your legs so small
Like how do you manage?

And I'm hearing them man don't like me
That's cool, we weren't even friends
Skeng get dough and come to your ends
And it's fucking funny
When all of them act like them boy are some gens
Leg, chest, neck and back
Dip, dip and you're next
And your guy just running
Blow to your guys
'Bro there's opps on the ends! '
And man won't come out the block
They're shook for their life cuh OD's ments
And I heard that tune, that's kinda shit
But no I ain't hating on them
Dilligent bop on march

See a one ting like come to the 4's
Knees on the floor, that's noddy of course
Skudu-du-bow that's dotty of course
Dip mans chest, now he's dripping in sauce
Now he's dripping in sauce
Now he's dripping in blood
Man got rude for the P's that's nuts
Plastic surgeon look at his guts
Shotgun soldier, bill it and cut
Like bill it and cut, like bill it and step
Diligent gang, no innocent men
Civilian yute, you're looking all wet
You're never involved, It doesn't make sense
You're sitting at cafe, you're looking all shit
Your brudda got chef'd like beans and chips

Tear my man from his belt to his lip
It could've been worse, you could've got pitched
You could've got clipped
