

Into Another

Skid Row

Slowly I heal the love that's found its way
Onto another path in times of change
Crossing a bridge unknown
Hoping our strength will hold
Should they both let go then let me lay
...Let me lay

Show me a sign
To a light that shines
One direction into another
Sheltered peace of mind

Somehow I lost a piece of memory
Somehow I know my legs will carry me
Searching for circle's end
Hoping the wounds will mend
Should they scar, then it was meant to be

(3x):

Show me a sign
To a light that shines
One direction into another
Sheltered peace of mind
